VEISHEA through the years...

A 2,480 pound Rice Krispies bar was made and broke the World Record Oscar Mayer Weinermobile visited the parade FIJI Fraternity celebrated its 15th year of the Pole Sit during VEISHEA

"Cyclone Idol" and "VEISHEA Thinks I'm Funny" contests were started

In place of VEISHEA, LINC (Leaders Inspiring Connections) was created to focus on community and campus service projects including Opperation Playground

VEISHEA 2007 "A Timeless Tradition" is the offical kickoff to lowa State's 150th Celebration Stars Over VEISHEA produces "The Music Man" for the fourth time in VEISHEA history

Residence Halls and Greek chapters were paired for parade floats Films were shown highlighting the five original colleges

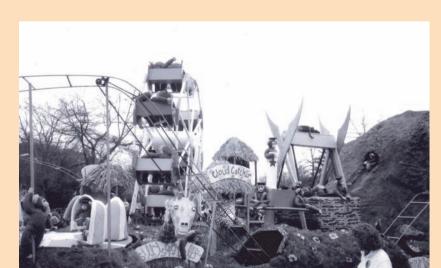

Parade stickers were handed out for the first time since the 1970's

Welch Avenue was the host to many events such as Battle of the Bands and Taste of VEISHEA Disturbances resulted in the cancelling of VEISHEA 2005

VEISHEA returned with a focus on creating one community between ISU and Ames The parade could be viewed over a live feed online

VEISHEA Celebration March 30-April 5, 2009

VEISHEA Celebration April 7-13th, 2008

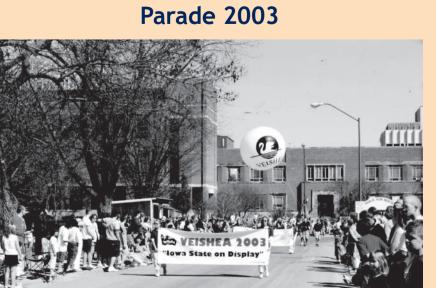

Parade 2002

Rice Krispies Bar 2001

Parade 2003

Parade 2003

