

VEISHEA through the years...

1990s

"Friends of VEISHEA" began so that alumnus and friends could donate to save the spring tradition
KOWZ did live radio broadcasting at events
PrISUm, the solar powered car created by the engineering program, appeared in the parade

ISU Groove Drumline makes its debut during the parade
150 applications were received for the VEISHEA Scholarship

"Cy's Big Top" was created to give kids a fun place to play games
ISU alum and Lebanon hostage Thomas Sutherland was the Grand Marshall of the parade
Disturbances happened off-campus

Taste of VEISHEA was held on Welch Avenue
Balloons were big attractions in the parade--Felix the Cat and Gumby made an appearance
Blindfolded canoe races took place on Lake LaVerne

VEISHEA celebrated George Washington Carver's 100th year anniversary of receiving his degree at Iowa State

Carrie Chapman Catt was celebrated with the play "Yellow Rose of Suffrage," written by ISU Theater Professor Jane Cox

In celebration of Iowa's Sesquicentennial, VEISHEA invited all 99 counties to showcase themselves at the "150th Boulevard"
First year for the pancake breakfast

VEISHEA set up a 75th Anniversary display in the Great Hall of the Memorial Union
Security was re-evaluated after an off-campus incident VEISHEA weekend

VEISHEA worked with Mary Greeley Center to raise money for the Israel Family Hospice House

Goo Goo Dolls played at Hilton
Dave Chappell & Greg Rogell were comedians at "Dew the Rec"
Local CBS station KCCI took over parade broadcasting

1990

1991

1992

1993

1994

1995

1996

1997

1998

1999

Parade 1992

Parade 1994

Torch 1994

Opening Ceremonies 1993

Rally 1992

Stars Over VEISHEA 1994